

Valley primps for rose show

Pleasanton — Memories of when Pleasanton was noted as the home of the "World's Largest Rose Grower," will be brought to life with the coming of the Pleasanton Rose Show on May 8 and 9, sponsored by the First National Bank of Pleasanton.

In this bicentennial year, special categories are being offered in the arrangement groups to join the community in its effort to emphasize the bicentennial themes.

The Pleasanton Rose Show can look back some 38 years to its beginning as a display of home grown roses to the popular, competitive and pleasurable event it has become to many local residents.

For some, it means keen spirit of competition, a chance to win a blue ribbon or perhaps just once to have their name added to the handsome Christesen Trophy which the winner will have in their possession for the year. For most, however, the Pleasanton Rose Show is simply a beautiful display and remarkable evidence of the productivity of the valley's soil and sun as well as the exhibitor's ability to grow beautiful roses.

Everyone who has a rose bush in their garden is a qualified entrant, and a potential winner. Individual blooms are simply brought to the front of The First National Bank on Saturday, May 8 between 9 a.m. and noon, where the bank staff will be on hand to accept the entries.

Single Rose blooms or a group of three blooms of the same variety and color are accepted in white, pink, yellow, multicolor, red orange, lavender and peace sections. Climbing roses, Floribundas and Grandifloras may also be entered in special sections.

Categories in the arrangement division will be: 1. "Mother's Day," a corsage of flowers of your choice with roses; (a new group this year as a corsage section has not been offered before); 2. "Our Bounteous Land," a driftwood arrangement with roses and plant materials, fresh or dry, with accessories permitted; 3. "Merry Month of May" a mixed bouquet of fresh flowers and roses, any type of container; 4. "Genie Power," a single rose with other plant material in a bottle or jug; 5. "The Bicentennial," roses and other flowers in colors only of red, white and blue, in any type of container, in one of these same colors; 6. "Everything is Coming Up Roses," arrangement or roses only, may be mixed colors, with foliage, any type of containers; 7. "Miniature Rose Arrangement," up to eight inches (all ways) mixed, with small flowers and foliage, in miniature container. For adults only.

A section for girls and boys, ages 10 to 14, inc. is "My Heritage," a bicentennial theme depicting some phase of America's history, accessories permitted to carry out the theme, foliage and dry materials may be used.

Judging will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 8 and the show will be open to the public in the lobby of The First National Bank on Saturday from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. and on Sunday, May 9 from noon to 7 p.m. There is no charge for admission.

The Grand Award of the Christesen trophy for "Best Rose of the Show" will be presented to the winner on Saturday at 8 p.m.

A participant in the First National Bank's Rose Show from its beginning, Allan Henry of Pleasanton credits "tender loving care" for his success in growing roses which have brought him many ribbons over the years.

SRV school budget proposes $9.6 million building plan

The San Ramon Valley Unified School District is keeping within cost estimates for construction that residents authorized last year.

Voters approved a tax increase of 39 cents per $100 assessed valuation last May to pay for construction of an intermediate school (on Broadmoor) in San Ramon, remodeling of San Ramon High School and additions to California High School.

Additionally, and of even greater significance to San Ramon residents, the property tax rate in the district is projected to drop nearly 10 cents.

The first draft of next year's budget shows a $5.520 tax per $100 of assessed valuation to support a $19,871,859 budget.

The budget, $1,168,043 over this year's, reflects more state money per student in higher assessed valuations.

One million dollars of this increase, 88 per cent, goes to hiring more employees, regular non-negotiated salary increases and increased costs for employee benefits.

No increases in salaries (which the district has yet to negotiate with employees) and medical and dental costs are included in the budget, Arthur Bachelor, business manager, said.

The district has already been notified that the costs of the Kaiser health plan will increase 20 per cent and the California Dental Service 28 per cent.

Last year's budget was $18,703,816, with a property tax rate of $5.616 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The draft budget shows $10,188,754, for the total instructional program. Of this, $9.4 million is for general education and $738,172 for special education.

The administration is budgeted $1.85 million. Special projects are put at $311,487 and pupil services, $636,006.

The general support budget is $5.31 million and auxiliary services $1.56 million.

Total income for the district is estimated at $19,871,859, the same as expenses.

State funding comes to $4.22 million, local $11.87 million, county $1,000, and federal $60,000.

The school board is expected to adopt the tentative budget June 21, the publication budget July 12 and the final budget Aug. 2.

The building program will again focus on projects in the south or San Ramon section of the district.

Total estimated cost for the building program is $9,613,861.

But up to $633,970 could be saved if some proposals are eliminated.

Some $119,350 could be deducted at the intermediate school, $180,420 at California High School and $334,200 at San Ramon High School, according to figures presented to the school board.

Costs that could be eliminated at the intermediate school include an intrusion alarm system ($10,700), demountable walls ($2,850), a concrete practice wall and fencing ($45,000), landscaping, benches and some lighting ($8,650), a standard acoustical ceiling ($21,600) and a stage lighting fixture and dimming equipment ($15,550).

VCSD holds ceremony for new sports complex

DUBLIN — Work on Dublin Sports Grounds got off to a ceremonial start Friday as Valley Community Services District directors took time out to mark the occasion in a ground-breaking ceremony.

But as the directors smiled for the camera, workers for Landco Corporation continued the work they've been doing since the contract was awarded to them last March.

VCSD's park development coordinator Jim Nelson, a former VCSD director, said construction should be completed by July 6. The area will be graded and the grass ready to grow.

Nelson estimates the multi-use sports facility should be fit for area residents to use and enjoy by mid-September.

The 22-acre park will contain three soccer fields, five baseball diamonds and two softball fields.

Almost eight acres will be reserved for multi-use open space. Picnic tables and barbecues will be available.

The parking lot will accommodate 174 cars. Trees will surround the perimeter of the park, located off Dublin Boulevard in Dublin.

Plans still on the drawing board include construction of restroom facilities. The possibility of building a concession and dressing room areas is also being considered.

Nelson said the total cost of the park should not exceed $300,000. Landco will perform the major construction at a cost of $227,000. Improvements to be made by Zone 7 will cost about $20,000. Engineering costs account for an additional $10,000.

The 22-acre site came free. It was donated by the Federal Bureau of Outdoor Recreation some years back when a number of military areas across the nation were given over as park land to localities free of charge. The property was once part of Camp Parks.

The tax override authorized last May by VCSD voters will pay for the project, and two other park programs now underway.

Construction will begin May 5 on Athan Downs, a 20-acre sports facility located off Montevideo Drive in San Ramon.

This park, Nelson said, will be completed the same time as Dublin Sports Grounds. It will take less time to develop since the land does not require substantial grading, as did Dublin Sports Grounds.

Pleasanton to quiz potential planners

PLEASANTON — Interviews leading to a planning commission appointment and an in-depth look at that new municipal budget will occupy the city council on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The council has scheduled a 6:30 p.m. start both evenings for those interviews. Three candidates for the office will be appear at the Monday session — Robert Anglin, Gene Finch and Kenneth Goodman.

Appearing Tuesday night evening will be Jim Jordan, Richard Knight, Bette Meyer and Bill Jamieson. Of the seven nominees, Finch and Jordan are perhaps best known, both having bid for a council seat at the March municipal elections.

The budget study sessions promise to be long and lively, with council already advised by City Manager Wm. Edgar that a tax hike is likely, but still necessitating a freeze on any new hires, and a tight lid on most other expenditures for fiscal 1976-77.

Both the Monday and Tuesday night sessions will be held at the council chambers on West Angela Street.

Livermore council to study complaints on Dogwood Park

LIVERMORE — There's no in-between as far as opinions of Dogwood Park go.

Sixteen people who live around the undeveloped park (located off Olivina Avenue near Murrieta) were asked whether there were a problem with the park as it is; if so, is the problem "minor, medium or severe?"

Half declared they couldn't see any problem.

The other half said the problem is "severe."

City Council members will be considering the Department of Public Works survey tomorrow night when the council meets in public session beginning 8 p.m. in the municipal court chambers, 39 South Livermore Ave.

Major complaints about the park concern children setting fires there and motorcycles roaring over its grassy hills.

Access to the park is from Olivina and Dogwood Street.

The meeting will begin with a public hearing to consider rezoning from residential to neighborhood commercial property on the south side of Portola Avenue at the intersection with First Street.

A sewer connection agreement, Planning Commission reports and discussion of a method of forcing school districts to conform to city zoning laws, are among the many agenda matters to be taken up.

Bicentennial bunco

Valleyite bilked into bum flag buy

PLEASANTON — "I can tell you that your neighbors and friends there in Pleasanton will be surprised and impressed when they see your flag flying in front of your house or on the wall of your home."

Surprised, indeed. Not too impressed, however.

Inspired with patriotism in this, our Bicentennial year, the Rev. George McKean of Whiting Street in Pleasanton was enthused at the thought of owning a personalized flag proclaiming the event. The introductory letter made it sound too good to pass up:

"Did you know that McKean's have held important military, political and business positions which have greatly contributed to our American heritage? To commemorate the McKean contribution in this Bicentennial year, the American Historical Society has produced a McKean Bicentennial Commemorative Flag."

An original design, the flag is described as 16 x 24 inches of "polished polyester" featuring an eagle demotif flanked by the dates 1776 and 1976. "We feel this flag finally gives the great name of McKean the recognition it so richly deserves."

The Rev. McKean thought he deserved better, however, since the flag he received spelled his name "McKern."

Not believing his eyes, Rev. McKean reread the letter: "If you were to go out and have a flag of this type made up, it would be very expensive indeed. But, since they have already been made up for selected McKean families, the cost of your flag including handling and shipping will be only $9.95.

"I could only reserve one flag for you because of the severe shortage in flag production caused by the Bicentennial."

Too bad. He wanted a dozen. "I have had a number of these flags made up only for selected McKean families such as yourself who are respected and prominent citizens."

"Just think what a priceless heirloom this flag makes. Your grandchildren for generations to come will be reminded of you and that you were part of the history of the Bicentennial celebration. What better Bicentennial memento could you have."

A dented Samurai sword, perhaps. "I have enclosed everything you need to reply and I have already written your name and address on your claim check. Looking forward to hearing from you." Even the name on the claim check was misspelled.

In fact, Rev. McKean's name was misspelled four times. And in each instance, it was spelled a different way.

"It was a little bit aggravating, I must say," Rev. McKean said upon first receiving the flag. "I was looking forward to it with great anticipation."

The final blow came when a ruler revealed that the flag was two inches narrower and 1/4-inch shorter than advertised.

He promptly wrote the firm a letter demanding his money back, and chastised the company president for poor business practices. Does he expect to get his money back?

"Ha-ha-ha-ha," he chortled without comment, flagging the issue. —by Bill Cauble

The Rev. George McKean of Pleasanton displays a flag that cost him $10, with no discount for the misspelling.

A losing effort

The Cheese Factory Trivia Team, led by ace Ben Fernandez, pulled away in the final half to defeat The Times trivia sextet 17 to 8 Friday night at Sunol Golf Course clubhouse. A small but lively crowd saw the Lions and Rotary trivia teams deadlocked in the opening match. The Lions may ask for an instant replay on that decision. Times team members included, front from left, Frank Penna, Ray Mason, Bob Norek, Al Fischer and, in back, Joe Gates and June Vierra. Proceeds went to the Pleasanton Bicentennial Band Stand Fund.

Murray School District

Board eyes teacher goals

(This is the second of two articles on the Murray School District teachers' contract proposal for 1976-77. The district administration will present their formal response to the proposal at a board meeting Monday night at Lydixsen School in Pleasanton.)

One of the sections in the 72-page contract proposal presented by the Certificated Employees Council of the Murray district dwells on "association right."

Under this section, teachers are asking that the association and its members have the right to "make use of school equipment, buildings and facilities at all reasonable hours. Such equipment shall include typewriters, mimeo machines, other duplicating equipment, calculating machines, and all types of audio-visual equipment when such equipment is not otherwise in use."

The (teachers) association also wants the right to post notices of activities on bulletin boards, "at least one of which shall be provided in each school building in areas frequented by teachers."

The group also wants the right to "designate two teachers who are association officers to receive unpaid leaves of absence. Also, the board shall grant a paid leave to the president of the association during his/her term in office according to a schedule submitted by the president prior to the beginning of each school year."

Under "teaching conditions," teachers are asking that they get a 10-minute "break" after each two hours of pupil-contact load. "Every teacher shall be entitled to a daily duty-free, uninterrupted lunch period of 40 minutes (consecutive)."

Teachers are asking that no junior high teachers be required to teach more than two subjects nor have more than two preparation periods nor teach more than five periods without his or her consent.

In the area of class size and participation in extra duty activities, the CEC has requested that participation in these extra duty activities be strictly voluntary and compensable. "There shall be no reprisal for refusal."

"No kindergarten class shall have more than 20 students per teacher, no primary (1-3) more than 20, no upper elementary (4-6) more than 25 and no junior high class more than 25. Class size shall be computed by individual class population rather than by district or school average."

Teachers say that if such maximums are exceeded, by agreement, those teachers with enrollments above the requested standards be compensated at the rate of $600 per additional pupil per year.

CEC wants binding arbitration on grievance procedures and not base any adverse action against a teacher upon materials which are not contained in the teacher's personnel file.

Under a sub-section entitled "grading," teachers ask that grades given a student by a teacher be final and not subject to alteration unless fraud, bad faith, incompetency or error can be shown on the part of the teacher.

Other requests by teachers, many of them routine updates of previous pacts, include establishment of an educational development council, grievance procedures, assignment and transfer policy, evaluations, leaves, employee benefits, temporary contract teachers, and professional dues or fees and payroll deductions.

Special taxpayers' meet

SR unit hears cityhood pros

DANVILLE — Two incorporation pioneers from Lafayette and Moraga assured San Ramon cityhood proponents Thursday night that the valley would definitely incorporate "at some time," with resultant gains in law enforcement and local control.

At a special meeting of Taxpayers for Local Control Through Incorporation (TLC), former Lafayette mayor Robert Fisher and Moraga councilman Barry Gross recounted for a crowd of more than 100 persons their respective incorporation struggles.

Fisher, current president of John F. Kennedy University in Orinda and formerly a Lafayette councilman, mayor and member of the county Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO), said incorporation would greatly improve police services in the proposed city.

"There has been a very significant difference in police services in Lafayette since incorporation," Fisher said. Lafayette currently contracts with the county Sheriff's department for police services, while San Ramon intends to set up a 24-man city police force.

Most people are unaware of the quality of their police services, he said, so Lafayette commissioned a study to determine its level of efficiency. "The response times we got were shocking," Fisher said, referring to the amount of time needed for a deputy to reach Lafayette during an emergency.

Now the police services contract specifies that Sheriff's cars are not to leave city limits except in case of an extreme emergency in another part of the county.

Revenue surpluses derived mostly from state subvention funds, which San Ramon anticipates if incorporated, allowed Lafayette to install radar units in their patrol vehicles. Since San Ramon is similar to Lafayette in terms of low density and affluence, speeding is a major problem which radar helps alleviate.

"We incorporated because, as a low-density community with no terrible police problems, and a fairly affluent community, we had the right to claim state subventions. And they were being funnelled off, as is the case now in San Ramon, to other areas of the county that are trouble spots," Fisher said.

Lafayette, incorporated in 1968, has managed to build a revenue surplus of $1.3 million. During the incorporation campaign, critics said the city would have to resort to imposition of a city property tax to make ends meet.

"Lafayette, now in its eighth year (of cityhood), will not need a city property tax in the foreseeable future," Fisher said, and added that Pleasant Hill, a 13-year-old city, doesn't have such a tax.

Barry Gross is an attorney who fought to make Moraga, incorporated in November, 1974, the newest city in California.

"The name Taxpayers for Local Control Through Incorporation is appropriate — that's the only way you get local control — through incorporation," Gross said.

He said San Ramon resembles Moraga prior to incorporation — an affluent community wanting to retain its rural atmosphere.

He argued that the main reason to incorporate is local control. "We determined we didn't want the supervisors making our decisions for us."

No one goes to the trouble of contacting his district's supervisor on each issue, Gross said, much less all five. "But city councilmen are right next door, or just a mile down the road if you need them."

The main disadvantage in incorporating is cost, Gross said. But he termed San Ramon's proposed budget "extremely conservative" and, coupled with area's large sales tax base, predicted a surplus at the end of its first fiscal year.

"But the longer you wait, the less local control you will have," Gross concluded.

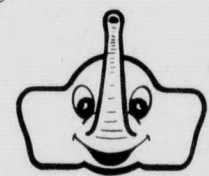

"You will incorporate," said Fisher. "The question is, will you incorporate before massive development, or after, when it is too late?"

Who's getting what as Murphy vote aides?

Oops!

The campaign committee to re-elect Supervisor John D. Murphy may catch a little heat from the Women's Movement.

According to campaign statements filed last week, they are paying Pleasanton City Councilwoman Joyce LeClaire $750 as headquarters' manager of their Pleasanton office.

But they also are paying Fremont school teacher Richard Wood $1,500 to act as his city's headquarters' manager.

Office headquarter managers handle appointments, organize local campaign activities and coordinate all efforts of the committees.

And it's a violation of both federal and state laws to pay women less than men if they do comparable jobs.

Neither one knows if the jobs are comparable, and both were shocked to find the difference.

"That's what I'm being paid because that's what I asked for," said LeClaire.

She also works as Southern Alameda County Representative for state Sen. Nicholas Petris, but notes that Sen. Petris has not made an endorsement in the Democratic primary run.

Wood, 33, an American High School teacher in Fremont, says he "talked with him over the number of hours I'd be working and that's the figure we agreed on. I told him what I felt the job is worth."

Wood is in his third year of Law school after getting a bachelor's degree from Cal State Hayward University. He's been involved in politics "for the past seven or eight years."

He has never worked for Murphy before, but was Fremont Mayor Gene Rhodes' campaign manager in this year's election.

Murphy said he doesn't know how much the headquarters' managers are paid, "that's up to the committee."

Campaign contributions are collected throughout his First Alameda County District, he said, and eventually get balanced out district-wide.

Murphy campaign contributions total $13,263, including $5,788 reportedly collected since January 1. Contacted a second time Saturday, the supervisor said $1,000 of the $1,500 figure was to establish a bank account for Fremont office expenditures.

National forum on volunteerism commences

Coordinating the local, grassroots forum on issues concerning volunteerism which is part of a national program are Elva Cooper of Chabot College's Office of Community Services; Barbara Hempfill, a volunteer representative; Betty Stallings, director of the Tri-Valley Volunteer Bureau; and Rosetta Pratt of the League of Women Voters.

All volunteers of the valley community are invited to join in a formal discussion of local and national issues concerning volunteerism at a meeting Thursday, May 6 coordinated by the Tri-Valley Volunteer Bureau, the Chabot College Office of Community Services, and the League of Women Voters.

The forum will convene at Franklin Savings and Loan Association, Main Street, Pleasanton, from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

It represents the local extension of the National Congress on Volunteerism and Citizenship of 1976, a program sponsored by the National Center for Voluntary Action and officially recognized by the American Bicentennial Administration.

The discussion will focus on two general issues: (1) identification of the five most pressing concerns in the valley community, followed by recommendations of meaningful ways in which interested citizens can affect these issues; and (2) discussion of methods, both local and national, to enhance volunteer participation in the community.

The agenda includes such questions as:
• Should a volunteer be allowed a tax deduction or tax credit for volunteer time?
• Should volunteers receive school, college or employment credits for volunteer experience?

• Should there be laws or regulations requiring minimum insurance and other liability protection for volunteers serving in public or voluntary organizations?
• Should government money be used to support and encourage local volunteer bureaus and voluntary action centers?

Participants in the local forums will develop an agenda which will form the basis of congressional district forums to be scheduled this summer. Representatives from these district forums will be elected to attend the National Congress in Washington, D.C., in November.

The Volunteer Bureau urges local agencies and clubs to send at least one representative to the forum on Thursday. Further information is available from the bureau at 462-3570.

Editorial and Feature Page

John B. Edmands, Editor and Publisher

When we run out of water

Elsewhere on this page there appears a "progress report" submitted on behalf of a committee charged with "A Study by the Livermore - Pleasanton Branch of the American Association of University Women." The subject is water.

In a basin and a Bay Area critically aware of "air pollution," and confronted with a tiresome litany of "sewer problems," we are inclined to forget that the most precious of our resources might prove to be water. And it is "water management" that is the concern of a few far-seeing people.

The AAUW is one such group. It was their thrust, through the work of that Livermore - Pleasanton Branch, which set the stage for a successful Valley challenge to "converting depleted gravel pits into the world's largest garbage dump." While we are still short of total victory on that one, the Valley has at least made regional and state officialdom aware of our determination to protect those underground water resources.

The immediate public awareness — at least in the Bay Area — is for water quality. There will come a day when we will be seriously concerned for water quantity. Just as we have belatedly discovered there are limits to the energy this nation might consume, we are learning that the world's water resources are limited.

As with those other crises — clean air, fossil fuels and open space — we find that our best one - two answer is moderation and conservation. And the sooner the better.

If the AAUW does little more than get us thinking that way about water, they will have served us very well indeed.

Teen traffic ticket

A letter in Wednesday's Times expressed concern about the suspension of a 17-year-old girl's driver's license after she was cited for driving 46 mph in a 25-mph zone. A traffic hearing officer suspended the girl's license for 25 days, even though it was her first offense.

The writer, Charles E. Wilson of Pleasanton, was concerned not with his daughter's plight, but the effect such seemingly arbitrary action would have on other young people.

Paul Green, acting director of the juvenile division of the county's probation department, said his department has an unwritten policy by which juvenile offenders have their license suspended for exceeding the posted limit by more than 20 mph.

"This policy is maintained as a rule of thumb so there can be some kind of consistency, with variations depending on individual cases," Green said. Under this system, he added, no bias on account of area, income, race, sex or age is tolerated.

"In this case, the standard 30-day suspension was lowered to 25 days since it was a first offense," Green said.

Traffic hearing officers — in this case, Lolita Doppelt — are appointed by the juvenile court judge. Doppelt, with the civil service rank of senior deputy probation officer, denies she made the statement, "This was her way of 'showing the DMV that she was concerned and doing her job.'"

Green said the decision could be appealed to the juvenile court in San Leandro simply by asking the court clerk for a rehearing. He added he would contact Mr. Wilson to insure that no misunderstandings existed in the matter.

Green asks that any questions on similar matters be referred directly to him at 577-1170.

Water management

Editor, The Times:

State water problems are in today's Chronicle and I thought you might be interested that this Saturday the State Convention of AAUW (163 branches, over 30,000 member in California) will be considering water management recommendations as a result of our Livermore - Pleasanton Branch water study.

California is now at the place where we must be concerned whether or not we have enough water for our growing population and needs. (And not just because this is a dry year!)

Legislative guideline recommendations from only two Branches will be brought before the State Convention this year. We are pleased our Branch is one of those. The Convention meets in Sacramento April 30 to May 2 and over 500 women will attend.

Enclosed is a copy of our Feb. 1976 study, "Water Management in California, How Adequate?" It puts together more information essential to understanding water management in California than you will find in any other one source.

The State Convention will vote on these Guidelines:

1. Recommend a re-evaluation of the California Water Plan and State Water Project taking into consideration current population projections and national AAUW Bequeathed Earth guidelines. (Replaces State Water Resource Guideline a.)

2. Water planning should meet water needs of the state using water conservation, desalinization, waste - water recycling and other technological processes. These should be given priority over additional water importation projects.

3. Support federal legislation to bring federal water project operations into accord with State water quality standards.

The State Department of Water Resources is doing No. 1 now, re-evaluating. We believe No. 3 is essential for California's survival.

Letters to the Times

The real church

Editor, The Times:

I have never written a letter to an Editor before, but, I feel that I have been silent long enough. I feel that some enlightenment must be given to the non-church and apparently non - Christian critics of the Pleasanton Presbyterian Church. They are misguided in believing that the "church" is just a building.

Fourteen years ago, Anna Andresen, Vivian Torrey, Bertha Casterson, and Sarah Dana all opened their hearts to me and made me feel needed and loved. This is what the last 100 years has produced in this Christian community. We do have a lovely building and it will be just as lovely on Mirador (and possibly more so) as it is now on busy and noisy Neal and First.

But, we have something more important in our "church." We have loving and beautiful people who care about each other and the citizens of Pleasanton and other areas. Over 100 years this has been "preserved" by passing it on to all who seek this love and peace. So, critics, let us be about our Father's business ... my role is to help move the church, so we can expand and continue to share the love and concern that is the "Heritage" of the Pleasanton Presbyterian Church. We invite you to come in and join with us in witnessing. Please don't stand outside and criticize.

Murphy smeared

Editor, The Times:

I was appalled to read the smear of Supervisor John D. Murphy on the front page of the April 11th issue of the Valley Times. The bold headline, "Murphy faces residence conflict," across the front page was completely unwarranted.

John Murphy has served this district well on the Board of Supervisors for nearly sixteen years. He is well liked and a honest, hard working man and would certainly know if he were qualified for that property exemption in Grass Valley. I ask you, is it a crime to own or sell your own property at a profit?

It is too bad that there are a few coyotes around who have tried so hard to rip apart one man's honest political career. It is these few people with narrow minds and nothing more to occupy their time but to tear apart one man's good character and the good things in life.

I have just one thing to say to reporter Ron Rodriguez. "Be careful of what you write in the future. Smear stories will not make you a good reporter, but honest headlines will."

Minnie Vieira

(There was never any question about Mr. Murphy's right to "sell his property at a profit." The conflict arises in that no one can claim property tax exemption in one county while voting or holding elective office in another county. Mr. Murphy is apparently cleared on any "conflict" in this regard only because he signed the Nevada County property tax exemption claim (as he states) "for my wife under the California Community Property laws." That explanation has now been accepted, and The Times acknowledged it in a Friday editorial. — Editor.)

Found watch

Editor, The Times:

Last Saturday I lost my watch at the Safeway store in Pleasanton, at least I thought I lost it there. I called the office to alert them and in the conversation we both agreed that I had probably seen the last of it.

On Tuesday, while shopping, I decided to inquire about the watch. Imagine my surprise and delight when the attendant produced it from a peg on the wall. No name was attached to it. Through the services of this paper I wish to thank either the employee or the patron who returned it.

It's a good feeling to live in a town where the golden rule is practiced.

Round the town

"Why don't you publish more happy news?"

The complaint came from a reader who is happy this week, and wants to share her good feeling. The photo which appears alongside this column is in that same vein ... although not from the same caller.

Bob Holt and Pat Schnedl are, as a matter of fact, members of this newspaper's staff. Happy members, we assume. Or why would they be undertaking a rigorous bike journey under "The Times" banner?

"It's really to raise funds for Cystic Fibrosis," Bob explains. They call it a "Bike - a - Thon." Nine routes set throughout the East Bay. Bob has chosen that one from Granada High in Livermore, into downtown Pleasanton, and return. A grand total of 25 miles.

"I've ridden that much before in one day, so it should be no strain "That's what Bob Holt says. But we are sending along Pat Schnedl, just in case. Pat is Bob's lady - in - waiting, so to speak. Like Florence Nightingale. Pat will be waiting for Bob to collapse. Along the road. In the heat of the day.

Pat will not be HOPING Bob is about to collapse. It is not that kind of race. The idea is to make it, no matter how long it takes. This is a happy trip, for happy people.

"People pledge so much money per mile, and for every mile I complete, they pay that much into the Cystic Fibrosis fund." Bob plans on riding all 25 miles. For those pledgers who figure on saving a buck or two, our man Bob is not a good bet. He could cost you a bundle.

"I used to ride my bike part way to work during the 1975 gas shortage," Bob advises. He labored for The Trib then. Bike to BART, took transit the rest of the way. The cycle portion was somewhat more reliable, he remembers.

Bob and Pat are real happy about all this. And since they are making happy news, I felt obligated to report it here, in line with that reader's demand for "the brighter things of life."

Right now we are all hoping Bob and Pat show up for work bright and early Monday morning. They are key members of the newspaper's advertising staff. If they fail to show, we're all going to be mighty unhappy. Continuing my search for "good news," I encountered this third grader of some acquaintance.

"Do you have any good news to share with us?"

"We are studying all about pollution at school," she reported, happily. "There are three kinds. Water pollution, air pollution and noise pollution."

"And are they teaching you what to do to stop that pollution?"

"Well, to start with, we could stop noise pollution by doing away with all those weddings."

I guess that is good news. Depends on your point of view ... on the noise of the matrimonial rite, and the bedlam that sometimes prevails for long after. My third grader did not make clear which pollution she was referring to. And I didn't have the courage to inquire.

Katie Moore wants us all to be particularly happy in the week starting May 2.

"It's 'Be Kind To Animals Week,'" Katie advises. A happy pet owner is a happy person, I suppose. Then again, it's them that has happy pets that are contended with the balance of life, I find.

We have a Dachshund, as you may know. They are not the world's happiest canines. No one has ever reported a picture of a laughing Doxie. Some folks, when first laying eyes on this sad - eyed breed, have been known to break down and cry. "The poor little thing looks so sad," they slobber.

I have often been compelled to defend my treatment of our Doxie against those who believe I am beating the poor thing with a large stick.

"She is really a very happy little dog," I plead. Fact is, she is happiest when she looks the saddest. That's the way it is with Dachshunds.

It is also the way it is with some people. Take presidential candidates, for instance.

Gerald Ford goes on the tube to tell us he is confident for himself, for his nation, for the world. And he looks downright crestfallen as he gives us all this happy news.

Ronald Reagan promises us a brighter future, but he wants to double the defense budget, just to make certain.

Jerr Brown has now joined the race. He is carrying his story of good news across the land. He has the face of a troubled mortician. He instills confidence like my stockbroker. He looks, in fact, a great deal like my Dachshund.

I know my Doxie is happy, deep down, because she has never bitten me. I cannot say the same for Gerald Ford, or Ronnie Reagan, or Jerr Brown.

Lighter Times

The Great Anthem Controversy continues to rage! Should The National Anthem be played at sports and major cultural events? Is God Bless America a worthy substitute or should all patriotic or nationalistic songs be scotched?

Somewhere along the line, National Anthem opponents equated the piece by Francis Scott Key as being something short of Broadway show biz standards.

It'd never be a hit in Hollywood or Vegas, either. Good dramatic content but no finger - snapping phrases!

Show me a tune without a "oobie, skubie doo" or "sha-boom" and I'll show you a tune doomed for the Tin Pan Alley scrap heap.

Trouble is, ol' Francis Scott never had Broadway or Vegas in mind when he penned the immortal words.

Too busy counting

"bombs bursting in air." Opponents should realize that scratching The National Anthem from major events strips away the last opportunity for protestors to show their defiance to the good ol' USA.

They'll have to find new ways to express their discontent.

Maybe they could do it by not standing for the kickoff. That'd not only "take care" of us Ugly Americans but some of those high - priced athletes too.

God Bless America would be an excellent alternate choice if the major domos of our sports and cultural events deemed too wearisome.

Just as long as they don't confuse Francis Scott Key's claim to fame with show biz tunes.

"There's no business like show business" would make a hell of a substitute.

ANOTHER VIEW

Nuclear power

By Karen Boyle
Times staff writer

On June 8 Californians will vote on Proposition 15, the Nuclear Safeguards Initiative. This most controversial proposition deals with a highly technical subject. But, for better or worse, the verdict is not likely to be determined so much on its technical merits as on voters' subjective, even emotional interpretations of the impact of nuclear power upon their lives.

In deciding which way to vote, the electorate will have to answer a very simple question: do the benefits of nuclear power outweigh the risks?

Proposition 15 requires that nuclear power plants be proven safe; that adequate means be found to store radioactive byproducts; that evacuation routes be published annually; and that Californians be more fully compensated in the event of a major accident.

The proposition calls for an incremental derating of the plants' capacity if the provisions are not met. Once satisfied, the plants may be brought back to full capacity.

Arguments against Proposition 15 are firmly based upon the notion that the initiative means a shut-down of nuclear power plants. They argue its conditions, for all practical purposes, cannot be fulfilled.

They predict that passage of Proposition 15 will cost Californians billions of dollars, drive up our dependence upon foreign oil, and threaten to severely depress our lifestyles.

California utilities, they say, will be forced to turn to coal as the only realistic alternative to nuclear power.

And coal presents formidable problems. Estimates are that coal generation would cost $125 million per year more to operate than comparable nuclear generation.

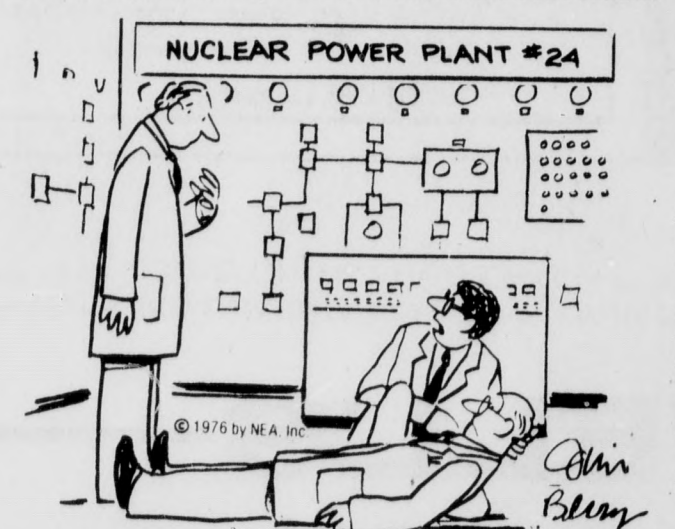

Coal also poses grave environmental problems both in California and in neighboring western states whose coal fields would be strip mined to supply California with the coal it will need.

Millions of tons of sulfur sludge and ash, byproducts of coal generation, would need to be disposed each year.

Foes of the initiative point proudly to the industry's safety record. Current safety systems are adequate, they say, adding that the probability of a major accident is only 1 chance in 5 million.

Though nothing in life is risk-free, "No on 15" advocates believe nuclear power comes close.

Supporters of Proposition 15 wonder why opposition to the initiative is so great, if the industry is as safe as it claims to be and the risks are that small.

"Why couldn't you have just said you left your apple on the hot plate instead of 'There's been a core-meltdown'?"

Johnny Wonder's QUESTION CORNER

Q. "WHY IS THERE DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME?"

A. BY SETTING OUR CLOCKS ONE HOUR AHEAD OF STANDARD TIME DURING THE SUMMER, WE "SAVE" AN HOUR OF DAYLIGHT FOR EVENING RECREATION.

KIM ZUPAN
JOHNSTOWN, PA

WINTER

SUMMER

During the summer, most people in the United States set their clocks one hour ahead of standard time.

Daylight saving time doesn't add any more hours to a day. By setting the clock ahead, it doesn't get dark until an hour later.

As a result, an hour of daylight has been "saved," giving people extra daylight after work for recreation and other daylight activities.

Daylight saving time began as an economy measure during World Wars I and II, when fuel for generating electricity was scarce. By saving daylight, people saved electricity.

But many people found that they like to have an extra hour of daylight during peacetime, too, and so the new time has remained in use.

In the United States, daylight saving time usually begins on the last Sunday in April and ends on the last Sunday in October.

We do not have daylight time during the winter because the days are shorter, and not so much daylight can be "saved."

World Almanac globe or other fine prize will be awarded to the first youngster sending in a question used here. Send your question and your age to Johnny Wonder, (c/o this newspaper), Box 1335 (DA), Santa Cruz, CA 95061.

Dons edge MV, lead loop

Using its most potent weapons, good pitching and a sound defense, Amador High School's baseball team swept into the EBAL lead Friday afternoon with a nail-biting 2-1 decision over visiting Monte Vista.

The victory gives the Dons a 7-2 record and the lead in the EBAL race. Monte Vista dropped to 6-2, one-half game off Amador's pace.

If one is looking for specifics the game was determined basically by two plays in the latter stages of the contest.

With the score tied 1-1 in the bottom of the fifth Mike Johnson of Amador belted a triple to center field to bring in Jeff Terry with the winning run. Terry had singled with one out.

The other 'big play' came moments later in the top of the sixth. After Andy Finn struck out to open the inning for the Mustangs, left fielder Craig Bisbee lined a shot between left and center field. Bisbee rounded second and headed for third but a fine throw by Don center fielder Mike Connolly nipped him at the bag.

The play took on even more importance when Mark Silva and Kevin Jones both singled. If Bisbee had been safe at third Silva's hit would have scored him and the game would have been tied 2-2 with just one out for Monte Vista.

As it was, however, Craig Hedsell struck out after Jones's single and the Dons were out of the inning.

Monte Vista struck first in the game in the opening stanza when Silva reached second on an error and Jones brought him home with a single to left.

It was here, however, that Amador pitcher Rob Wicks, who won his third game in as many starts, began to show his stuff.

The wiry junior struck out the next two batters and went on to strike out eight more for a game total of 10.

Wicks only allowed four hits and walked no batters. An achievement in itself.

Amador evened the score in the third inning. Right fielder Mike Garrison and Connolly opened the innings with walks. Terry then singled in Garrison with the tying run but Connolly was tagged out at third. Dan Stratface then hit into a double play to end the inning.

The victory was Wicks' sixth against no losses in EBAL action. Greg Goodman, who pitched a masterful 14-strikeout no-hitter for Monte Vista earlier in the season, was tagged with the defeat. Goodman only had three strikeouts and walked five batters. However, he allowed just five hits and generally had good control.

Amador coach Don Bush praised his defense and Wicks after the contest. He also has some compliments for his hitters.

"Our hitting was adequate today," he said. "However, we're meeting the ball better and our hits were timely."

— Gary Brown

Times Sports

Puertas star in Gael win

Dublin's Jerry Puertas was the only player the Gaels needed to beat Foothill High as he hit and pitched his team to a 6-1 victory in EBAL baseball action yesterday at Foothill.

In the pitching department, Puertas twirled a fine one hitter, and except for the first inning which saw Foothill get their only run, and the third he was in total control of the Falcon hitters. Batting wise, Puertas enjoyed a three for four day at the plate and had three RBI's the Gaels would need to get the win. Bob Jerrell also was a run producer for Dublin, scoring three times for the day, twice off the bat of Puertas.

The Gaels started the scoring in the first inning. Jarrell had a leadoff base hit and promptly stole second. On that day, Dublin had four stolen sacks and would set up three runs this way. After two outs on flies to the outfield, Puertas stepped up and hit a 2-2 loser Mike Krikorian. Jarrell again led things off with a walk. Craig Chiariotti hit safely, moving Jarrell to third and both scored when Shawn Mays's single to right got under the legs of right fielder Johnstone. After two infield outs Allen Shaut hit a grounder that was misplayed by the shortstop, allowing Mays to score.

The Gaels got one more in the seventh this time off of reliever Pat Driver, who had come on in place of Krikorian in the sixth. Chiariotti had a hit, stole second, then got to third on a fielders choice. He scored on Puertas's third hit of the day.

Jespersion stars Mats crush Grizzlies

Granada scored 12 runs, only one of them earned, in the first three innings Friday and held on to defeat California, 13-8, in a slugfest in Livermore.

Bill Jespersen drove in four runs with two doubles and Tim Shatswell collected two singles and a double to lead the Mats to their second EBAL win against five losses and two ties. The slumping Grizzlies suffered their third consecutive defeat.

Although the Grizzlies outthrew Granada 10-8, six of the Matador hits went for extra bases. The Mats collected five doubles and a homer, while Cal swatted two doubles, a triple, and two homers to keep the game close.

Cal quickly jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning on Mike Daugherty's infield single and Bret Cary's triple. But a costly error in Granada's half of the stanza opened the door for eight Matador runs.

With Jespersen at second and Vance Rushing at first with one out, Granada's Steve Stone stroked a hot double-play ground ball to shortstop Larry Walters, who threw wild to second, scoring Jespersen.

After Tim Shatswell fled out in what would have been out number three, Rich Reinhardt lofted a long fly that centerfielder Chuck Cary misjudged. Reinhardt was credited with a double, scoring Rushing and Stone.

Losing hurler Bret Cary then walked winning pitcher Bob Parness and Scott Trudeau to load the bases. Jarly Hudson's double scored two more runs to make it 5-1 and Dennis Leheew's walk loaded the bags. Jespersen then stroked a bases-clearing double, giving the Mats an 8-1 lead.

Stone's leadoff homer in the second inning made it 9-1, but the Grizzlies fought back valiantly in the third, spurred by Roger Hurlow's three-run homer.

Daugherty's leadoff walk and singles by Bret Cary and Walters loaded the bases. Chuck Cary grounded out to score Daugherty, setting the stage for Hurlow's three-run shot, a towering drive over the centerfield fence.

Billy Jones' solo homer one out later made it 9-6. Granada scored three times in the third, taking advantage of two Cal errors. Jespersen's second double and Shatswell's single chased Cary from the mound and brought on Walters. The tall right-hander ended the threat by getting Reinhardt to hit into a double play.

Over the final three innings, Walters held Granada to a single hit, but it was a costly one. Shatswell's two-out double in the fifth scored Rushing, who had walked.

Doubles by Walters and Hurlow netted another Cal run in the fifth.

Parness tired somewhat in the seventh. He walked three batters and gave up a single to Chuck Cary as the Grizzlies refused to lay down and play dead.

Granada coach Dennis Berger then brought in ace pitcher Steve Stone. The burly senior got out of the jam by striking out all three batters he faced in impressive fashion to pick up the save for Granada.

Bold Forbes wins Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bold Forbes, the spunky little horse from Puerto Rico, smashed Honest Pleasure's balloon Saturday afternoon by defeating what some had called a super horse in a wire to wire victory in the Kentucky Derby.

Flying the red and black colors of Esteban Tizol, Bold Forbes opened a wide lead in the backstretch and hung on as Honest Pleasure made a gallant stretch drive.

Elocutionist, Eugene Cashman's Arkansas derby winner, finished third and Amano, owned by James Irvin, finished fourth.

It was Bold Forbes on the inside and Honest Pleasure on the outside, only a length apart, as they charged down the stretch through the green haze of a smoke bomb thrown on the track just after the race started.

Bold Forbes' victory made it three Derbies in a row for grandsons of the late, great sire Bold Ruler.

At the wire, Bold Forbes had a one-length lead over Honest Pleasure with Elocutionist another 3 1/4 lengths back and a gap of another 1 1/4 back to Amano.

It was, truly, "the greatest day of my life," for Tizol, who felt that way even before his horse won America's greatest horse race.

Tizol, 72, however, not only could not be at the Derby because of a recent stroke but was ordered not to watch it on television or listen to it on the radio.

It was the greatest of victories for a colt whose owners once thought might never race at all.

Enrique Ubarri, one of Tizol's neighbors, who gets his horses ready for the races, said Bold Forbes was "one of the most backward" yearlings sent to his farm two years ago.

"He showed no signs of speed and did not seem to like racing," Ubarri said.

He simply had his owners — and everyone else — fooled.

Speier, Murcer trigger SF win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Chris Speier's triple and Bobby Murcer's single in the eighth broke a 1-1 tie and triggered San Francisco to a 3-1 victory over Chicago Saturday in a game marred by a pair of bench-clearing brawls that resulted in the ejections of the Cubs' Jose Cardenal and Bill Madlock.

Rick Monday's double, Cardenal's grounder and Madlock's single gave Chicago a 1-0 lead in the first off starter Jim Barr, the center of controversy in the third-inning battles.

Cardenal was ejected for throwing his batting helmet at Barr following an inside pitch while Madlock got the boot for going to the mound after being hit by a pitch. The Cubs protested the game because Barr was allowed to continue.

The Giants tied the game off Ray Burris in the fourth. Murcer led off with a double, went to third on Gary Matthews' grounder and scored on Willie Montanez' single.

Gary Lavelle, 1-0, was the winner for the Giants, who snapped a five-game losing streak. Buddy Schultz, 1-1, was the loser. San Francisco added another run in the eighth when Murcer stole second and scored on Ken Reitz' single.

New Wolf coach likes competition

Lyle Setencich obviously enjoys a challenge.

By his own admission he accepted two tough tests when he agreed to take the head varsity football coaching job at San Ramon High School.

First is upgraded competition.

Although it would seem that coming off a pair of 4-6 seasons as head coach at Albany High School, Setencich had plenty of competition in the Foothill Athletic League, the marks are misleading.

Before the arrival of the youthful Setencich in 1974, the Cougars had not won as many as four games in over 18 years. Additionally, the veer offense that he has nurtured the past two seasons should be in full flower this season.

"The only regret I have is that next year Albany will probably have its best football team ever," mused Setencich. "But the East Bay Athletic League is a strong one — I wanted the increase in competition."

The other challenge is obvious. How does one follow an act like Fred Houston who, however controversial, became almost a living legend in Valley sports over his 16-year tenure at the Wolf helm?

"I have a sincere respect for Fred," Setencich said of his predecessor. "He just beat everybody — following him will be a hell of a challenge."

Obviously, Setencich is a different type of coach than Houston who was fired by San Ramon principal Jim Henderson, who cited the need for a program that meets the needs of many students.

"Don't compare me to Fred," Setencich asked. The social studies instructor did say, "The more kids you get into the program, the better."

"I feel more successful if I have 35 people contributing than if only a few kids are playing," he said.

On the field, Setencich plans an almost total change in strategy.

Offensively, the Wolves will go with a form of the North Carolina veer if, the native Californian empha-

Church news

Evangelical Free

PLEASANTON— The Lord's Supper will be administered this coming Sunday morning at the Evangelical Free Church at the 11 a.m. morning worship service. Pastor Merle Aaker will be explaining the various meanings of the Lord's Supper. In the absence of the ladies, who will be at a retreat at Mt. Hermon, the male chorus will sing.

During the evening service at 7 p.m., the pastor will continue his study of the Book of James, speaking on "The Tongue Tamer." We discover that it is to the extent that a Christian controls his tongue that he is mature in his Christian faith. The ladies will also be giving reports on their weekend conference. The congregation meets in the multipurpose room of the Valley View School on Adams Way in Pleasanton.

Livermore Presbyterian

LIVERMORE— This Sunday, the Rev. William E. Nebo's sermon at the First Presbyterian Church, 2020 Fifth St., is entitled "Is Generosity Possible." He will deal with a world situation that affects all of our moral sensibilities; the problem is the production and distribution of the world's food resources. We have often spoken of this problem and across the nation churches have held prayer vigils and symbolic soup dinners to dramatize the need for Christians to do something for those in other countries. However, he feels these efforts are indeed more symbolic than real, and wants to talk about how we might make a more realistic and continuous response to this pressing problem. Services are scheduled for 9:30 and 10:30 a.m.

The time limits applicable to said users shall be the same as the use category within which they receive their specific sewer allocation.

Section 6. Revocation of Connections. The sewer connection allocations specified in this resolution are made possible as a result of the release of a building connections ban against the Sunol STP by the Regional Water Quality Control Board. Said release was obtained due to actions authorized by the City Council and the expenditures of over one-half million dollars at a sewage treatment plant which will either be replaced or phased out within approximately five years. Although the City Council will endeavor to keep the Sunol STP operating within the standards established by the above Board, the City Council cannot guarantee that any sewer connections which are allocated will be available indefinitely. The Regional Water Quality Control Board acts independently of the City of Pleasanton and its future actions and requirements, regarding sewage treatment disposal, are subject to change. The City Council may revoke allocated unissued sewer connections or issued sewer connections where substantial improvements have not been performed if the Council determines that the public health, safety, and general welfare require such revocation of connections. The Assistant City Manager/Director of Public Works, in consultation with the Chief Building Inspector, shall determine if substantial improvements exist which would prevent revocation of an issued sewer connection. The Assistant City Manager's determination shall include but not be limited to, consideration of actual physical improvements made to each building site for which a sewer connection has been issued. Revocation of an issued sewer connection shall occur when the holder of the sewer connection has been advised, either orally or in writing, of said revocation by the City Manager, or his representative, and by tendering reimbursement of the appropriate fees. The same revocation procedure shall apply to any action of the Regional Board re-imposing a connection ban upon the Sunol STP.

Section 7. Administrative. The City Manager and the departments under his control, together with the City Attorney's office, shall be responsible for administering this resolution. The City staff shall endeavor to give an interpretation to the provisions herein which will most nearly effectuate the intention of the City Council to provide sewer connections on an equitable basis.

Section 8. Publication. The City Clerk shall cause a copy of this resolution to be published in the Pleasanton Times as soon as possible in order to insure greater dissemination of the allocation program set forth herein.

Section 9. Effective Date. This resolution shall become effective immediately upon the date that the Regional Water Quality Control Board, San Francisco Bay Region, releases the present sewer connections ban against the Sunol Sewage Treatment Plant.

THIS RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED ON APRIL 12, 1976 BY THE FOLLOWING VOTE:

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

THE CITY OF PLEASANTON AND THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION INVITES ALL INTERESTED PERSONS TO A PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER DESIGN AND ENVIRONMENTAL FEATURES FOR THE PROPOSED OVERCROSSING ACROSS INTERSTATE 680 CONNECTING THE EXISTING SECTIONS OF STONERIDGE DRIVE IN PLEASANTON.

WHERE
Val Vista Park Recreation Center
6757 Payne Road
Pleasanton

WHEN
Monday, June 7, 1976
7:30 P.M.

The City of Pleasanton has requested that an overcrossing be constructed across Interstate 680 connecting the existing sections of Stoneridge Drive east and west of the freeway. The overcrossing would provide for four traffic lanes plus a pedestrian and bicycle path.

The proposed project would provide needed access to the western portion of the City as well as cure a major deficiency in the City's street network by easing the present circuitry of travel experienced by residents of the west side of the City in reaching the central area and other activity centers on the east side of the City.

An environmental study has been completed and is the basis for a determination that the proposed project would have no significant adverse impact upon the environment.

The hearing has been scheduled to afford the public an opportunity to review and comment on the proposed improvements.

Written and oral statements from any interested persons or group will be received at the hearing for entry into the official hearing record.

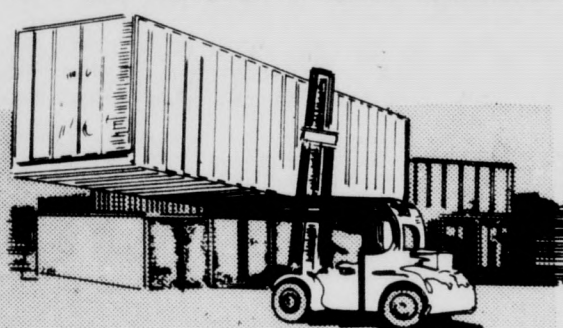

The public hearing record will be kept open 30 days after the public hearing (until July 7, 1976). Any letters or statements received during this period will be included in the record. These should be mailed to:

T. R. LAMMERS, District Director
Department of Transportation
P. O. Box 3366, Rincon Annex
San Francisco, CA 94119

Maps and other information about the project are available for inspection at the Department of Transportation Information Center, 150 Oak Street, San Francisco, California between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Lesher News Bureau

MARTINEZ — A fake earthquake rated at 8.3 on the Richter scale "struck" Contra Costa Friday.

The quake, simulated to test government's ability to deal with such a disaster was a success, according to Will Perry, county disaster chief.

Only nine "fatalities" were reported along with 30 others wounded, all in the Antioch area, according to reports at the mock disaster center.

Using the disaster office on Glacier Drive in Martinez, people in one room phoned in reports of broken bridges, failed reservoirs and other catastrophes to "players" in a room at the other end of the building.

Reports of damage were issued every few minutes.

Quake damage was placed over $6 million.

Reports were received at press time of full scale rioting at the county jail farm in Clayton, although no injuries were confirmed.
